Initial unemployment insurance claims drop for week ending September 9

BATON ROUGE, LA – The initial unemployment insurance claims for the week ending September 9, 2023, dropped to 1,384 from the week ending September 2, 2023, a total of 1,423. For a comparison, during the week ending September 10, 2022, 1,489 initial claims were filed.

The four-week moving average of initial claims decreased to 1,629 from the previous week's average of 1,757.

The unemployment insurance continued claims for the week ending September 9, 2023, decreased to 13,116 from the week ending September 2, 2023, a total of 13,657. The continued claims were above the comparable figure of 10,993 for the week ending September 10, 2022.

The four-week moving average of continued claims decreased to 13,911 from the previous week's average of 14,424.

The Louisiana Workforce Commission (LWC) has countless tools, both in person and online, to help claimants file and process their claims. This is in addition to the resources found at the agency's 62 local offices statewide, opportunities discovered at job fairs, training programs, apprenticeship opportunities, and numerous other LWC services.
